[REPOSITORY] Subversion is now working
Hendra Jaya - 2009-08-11 22:42   -   Uluwatu Lib
About one week ago, i sent an email to Onno W Purbo and Anton Raharja asking why subversion is not working. They quickly responded to my email and now subversion is working fine. Actually, i faced another problem back then. That was my proxy cannot understand several subversion method like MKACTIVITY. But, after talking to my office's sys admin. This problem got solved

Quick update from 1.0.4 to 1.0.4.2

Submitted by support on Fri, 03/20/2009 - 09:38

Recently we're releasing an update for the latest Briker. Get it from our download page, http://www.briker.org/download. For those who already install Briker 1.0.4 we have prepared a patch to update your system to Briker 1.0.4.2.

Basically you need to get the update file from our download server, http://voiprakyat.or.id/pub/briker/patches/upgrade/, upload the update file (update-104-to-1042.bpz) to your Briker 1.0.4 server and issue below command from console:

briker-patch <update file name>

Once done and no error occured (errors will be printed and shown on console), that means you have successfully update your system, congrats!

Changelog:

Version 1.0.4.2 "Asia" - 090318
